WHY ACHIEVING TRULY SUSTAINABLE AND ENDURING SEATING DESIGN WILL REQUIRE CHANGES IN MINDSETS AND ENGINEERING FOR LIFE
2024 is another significant year for Aircraft Interiors International and its readers, as the post-pandemic recovery of the aviation and airline sectors continues apace, with many enjoying a return to profits, surging aircraft orders, and growing demand for cabin and IFEC products. Aircraft Interiors International worked hard to support the sector during the toughest period in aviation’s history, helping ensure the interiors and IFEC sectors, from manufacturers and suppliers, to designers and strategists, could make their voices heard and promote their innovations. We are thrilled to see the sector returning to its former strength so rapidly.

Aircraft Interiors International has been deeply embedded in the sector since its launch in 1998, with close ties to key organisations such as the Crystal Cabin Awards, Aircraft Interiors Expo, and most recently becoming the Official Magazine of APEX. Our brand is truly at the heart of the cabin, airline, IFEC and passenger experience world, delivering trends analysis, senior industry interviews, sector insights and, of course, all the latest innovations and concepts.

2023 has been a particularly significant year for us, as it marks the 25th anniversary of Aircraft Interiors International. The past quarter of a century has seen incredible advances in aviation, and several challenges, and Aircraft Interiors International looks forward to reporting on the exciting developments that will emerge over the next 25 years.

We will continue to deliver: The latest world news | New product reviews | Interviews | Airline case studies | Technology focuses | Market and design trend analyses | Product and service announcements

While some competitor titles have switched to a solely online presence, we are seeing strong demand and popularity for the hard copy of the magazine, and are delighted to keep investing in print media. We are also making further investments in the digital versions of Aircraft Interiors International, which are mailed out to the entire publication database. Our upgraded digital delivery system provides additional value for all advertisers as it can host multimedia, links to websites and social media, and bonus content, while readers can enjoy listening to an audio version of the magazine features during their busy work schedule. Whether through print or digital, in good times or challenging times, Aircraft Interiors International always strives to serve and support the sector.

The Aircraft Interiors International 2025 Showcase presents a unique opportunity for leading suppliers to showcase what they have to offer the industry through a combined advertising and editorial package. The advertisement provides a bold sales message whilst the editorial allows companies a chance to go into further detail about the products and services they have to offer as leaders in their field of business. The aim will be to demonstrate to airlines how they can save them money or provide an additional revenue stream. Freelance editorial commissioned by the editor will focus on key trends for the year ahead and will also look at key industry trends and forecasts. This is particularly important in current times and all delivered in a larger popular format in a publication that will kept hold of as a source reference throughout the year and longer still.

We have a section dedicated to leading cabin design and design engineering companies, featuring case studies on their most recent projects, demonstrating their expertise.

The content of the publication is compiled in the autumn and the 2025 Design Showcase will be published in January 2025 with additional copies available at the events that we will attend in 2025, providing long-term exposure and the best editorial opportunity for the year. In addition to this, a digital version of the publication will be clearly available on our website and weekly news email service for a full year before moving to our archive.

There are two packages available:

1) A half-page advertisement for 4,580GBP and a one-and-a-half page editorial contribution.

2) A full-page advertisement for 5,700GBP and a three-page editorial contribution.
